★★★★★ A REAL LIFE SAVER!!!

January 1, 2013

If you have a cat or dog with a sensitive stomach, GET THIS STUFF!!!

I'm pretty sure this stuff saved my cat's life! No kidding. She stopped eating solid food a long time ago because at some point she developed a VERY sensitive stomach and threw up dry food almost every time she ate. I had to give her meds for it daily and my cat is named "Monster" for a darn good reason!!! Good lord! You'd think I was strangling her rather than just giving her meds!

So, I started feeding her can food and she had difficulty keeping even that down too, even the really good stuff!!! UGH!!!

I realized after being given digestive enzymes for myself, that my cat desperately needed them too. I came across an article when I was considering making her food myself and it mentioned using probiotics in the food because "it's like Parmesan cheese to a cat." We'll, I don't know if that's quite true, but I needed digestive enzymes desperately for her and found this product with the added bonus of the pro and pre ★★★★★ Less throw up in the house!!!

So far so good. I got this because I had a cat that was vomitting. My vet wanted to do expensive tests. I did some research on line and with further quizzing of the vet guessed that my cat may have pancreatitis as it is not that uncommon in cats. Neither of the test that my vet wanted to do would have showed pancreatitis. I've coated his dry cat food with this and put it in his wet food. We're at 2 weeks now without vomitting.

At two months now and very little vomitting. Usually only occurs when he eats too fast - so his fault. Been giving it to all my cats and I have seen an improvement in the litter box. Very little smell.

We get this from the local pet shop. It totally prevents our dog's horrible farting and butt leakage. We tried purchasing it here, since the price was so much better, and it's NOT the same stuff. The container wasn't properly sealed, there's no seal inside the cap, and the powder isn't even the same color. Within two days of giving our dog this powder (stupid us, we tried), his farting was worse than ever. We sent it back, bought it locally, and the problem vanished.

★★★★★ Great for the health of your pets.

November 3, 2017

Love this product and has been wonderful for the health of our cats. We have two older indoor cats who were throwing up on a regular basis. It seemed to have gotten more frequent as they got older and we assumed it was normal and just part of living with cats. They are completely healthy otherwise so we have never been concerned. We were getting very tired of cleaning it up though. We buy quality cat food and pay attention to the ingredients, even switched to a senior food for them. Now, we mix the powder with wet canned cat food, each getting half a can as a daily treat. It doesn't seem to alter the taste at all and has no odor, they don't hesitate to eat their food with it at all. After a few days of giving it to them daily we noticed they weren't throwing up anymore. It has been several months now since we started using it, it lasts a very long time, and I am very happy with the product and with the health of our cats. Besides the rare hairball, no more stepping in and cleaning up cat puke!

I buy the large container for my dog because 1) she loves it. 2) She has a tendency to eat anything she can find.... dead, alive, or not moving fast enough. She is a working dog and is out chasing cattle daily. Since I have been using this with her food, she hasn't had any digestive issues. The thing that I have noticed the most is she never has smelly gas. Before using this product, she could clear out the barn with the smell of

We recently adopted a cat that has somewhat of an IBS issue. We were told by the vet to try some digestive enzymes. So far this has been agreeing with her tummy. She isn't completely resolved of her ibs D but it has gotten to the point of only one IBS-d every two weeks or do. We ad a small teaspoon amount to her food daily. I would guess that this one container of this will last us close to 3 months.

★★★★★ Helps my Tortie.

July 29, 2015

Size: 4 Ounce | Verified Purchase

I purchased the Naturvet Enzymes and Probiotics hoping it would help my tortoiseshell kitty with her digestive issues. She has had a soft stool for years and the vet and I have yet to figure out what the cause to be. I personally suspect she either has a food allergy, IBS, or IBD. I first changed her food (slowly) to a limited-ingredient diet. This seemed to help a bit but not entirely. When I came across this one day on Amazon I did a search for digestive enzymes. There is a lot of good information about digestive enzymes and how most of the cat and dog food out there today lacks these necessary enzymes because of the heating process the food must go through during canning. So after consideration I decided to add this to her diet as well. I have to say I have seen a remarkable improvement in her stool. It has become formed I would say 7 out of 10 times she goes. This is still not perfect but a marked improvement from where she was. I highly recommend this product but please consult with your veterinarian first to make sure this is right for your dear furbaby.

THANK YOU! This product has helped tremendously! My 6 year old yellow lab has had yeast problems for years. Ear Infections, Constant licking of her paws and lady parts, booty schoochin' you name it. We are on day 7 and all symptoms have stopped. Granted she is taking ear medicine but the rest of her issues have gone away and I believe that is related to this product. We need more time to tell if this is sustainable but I should mention she also loves the taste and licks every bit of the powder out of her dish!
